making powers. Non-Council members can be appointed to it. Its meetings are not open to the public and The Code of Conduct applies to all Councillors operating within it.

2.1.1 Working groups have no delegated powers.

2.1.2 Working groups have no delegated budget.

3. Committees

Committees are delegated powers to act within their Terms of Reference. This means that on all matters not reserved for consideration by another committee, or by the full Council, Committees have the power to make decisions and the power to spend within the agreed budget.

Members are entitled to attend all Committees and Sub-Committees whether or not they are members of the Committee, although no voting rights or right to participate in discussions or proceedings are granted.

3.1 Applicable to all Committees of the Council;

3.1.1 The Council has delegated to every committee of the Council full powers to act in all matters covered by the committee's Terms of Reference subject to:

- the provisions of any Standing Order or Financial Regulation for the time being in force, except where such Order or Regulation has been specifically waived by resolution of the Council.
- prior Council approval of annual capital, revenue estimates and consent to borrow.

3.1.2 When matters of major policy are involved, the existence of a policy approved by the Council. In the absence of such policy, Committees and Sub-committees may consider the matter and make recommendations to the Council. Major policy will arise either:

- on matters of major importance which have not previously been before the Council; or
- matters which have arisen in other Committees or Sub-committees but which cannot be resolved by them in the absence of settled Council policy; or
- in cases of doubt where a major policy is involved, the Chairman of the Council or the Chairman of any other Committee or Sub-committee, or in their absence the appropriate Vice-Chairman may, before a decision is taken by the committee or sub-committee, state that a matter of major policy is involved.

3.1.3 Every committee shall have the power to authorise an officer, after consultation with the Chairman of the Committee, to take decisions on specific urgent matters falling within its own Terms of Reference as it sees fit. The exercise by committees of these powers, shall be without derogation to the powers of the Council to call for a report on any committee decision.

3.1.4 Notwithstanding the powers delegated to committees, the Council retain the right to exercise such powers when necessary.

4 Delegation to Officers

The following matters are delegated to the Council's Officers to make decisions on behalf of the Council. These decisions must be exercised in accordance with the law, the Council's Standing Orders and Financial Regulations and any approved policy framework and budget.

The Council may at any time, following resolution, revoke any delegated authority.

Officers may decide not to exercise delegated responsibilities and may instead make a recommendation to Council or a Committee. Similarly, where Officers have no delegated power to make a decision, they report the matter to the Committee or the Council for a decision.
